The Madison Holleran Foundation: Suicide Prevention Speaker

Featuring Carli Bushoven, the Foundation's Executive Director and Madison's oldest sister

The primary mission of the Madison Holleran Foundation is to prevent suicides and to assist those in a crisis situation with phone numbers and resources that will assist them during their time in crisis. The Foundation is also focused on preparing high school seniors and college freshmen, since this can be a very difficult transition period, as it was for Madison and many college freshmen.

Carli Bushoven is the Executive Director for the Foundation as well as Madison's oldest sister. She will share Madison's story and the impact it has had on her and her family. Passionate for suicide awareness and prevention, Carli shares Madison's story in an effort to inspire others to speak out about mental health and end the stigma.
